Madeira is already almost a British colony, and although it is not bigger than a good-sized estancia of Buenos Aires (32 sq. leagues) we believe that Great Britain would be inclined to offer even more than its market value for it, and hardly need the fact that it is held by G. Britain down to 1815, when the Treaty of Vienna restored it to Portugal.

The Azores group is much more im-easy to see how it could be a desirable possession of the world, but it is not

OUR LONDON LETTER.

OUR OWN ENDS.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

January 1st.

The Stock Exchange is closed today and little has been done during the week. There was a spasmodic activity yesterday to close the year well, and even Argentine securities went up after being crushed by the price of Bresslau.

But the rise in the premium on gold and the fear of political complications on your side, in all probability, weigh on South American descriptions for some months to come. The only note item in River Plate finance is the as-urance telegraphed by the Uruguay Government to Dr. Elauri that the Customs receipts set apart as guarantee in the event of a default would be deposited regularly in the London and River

Plate Bank from and after the present date.

You will see reports of meetings of the Cordoba and Santa Fe and of the B. Blanca Railway. In neither meeting was there much to lay before the shareholders beyond apologies for the general state of affairs in the Argentine.

The image shows the front cover of a book. The main part of the cover is a dark, textured material, possibly leather or cloth, with a fine, repeating pattern. The top edge and the spine (on the left) are made of a lighter, smooth material, likely paper or a different type of leather. The book is closed, and the cover is shown from a slightly angled perspective.
